

Package Name	Second Party Conformity Assessment Services
Package Number	WS00119
Scope of Supply	The Scarborough Development seeks to procure second party Conformity Assessment Services (CAS), representing the Company, for the project scopes of work being performed by suppliers and contractors. The Contractor is to provide accredited second-party conformity assessment services, representing the Company's interest as purchaser and user of products and services and reliance on suppliers' management systems and organizations. The overall Scope of Work will consist of a program of individual conformity assessment assignments. Any services required will be detailed in individual assignments. The assignments are expected to be carried out at various international locations for assorted aspects of the Floating Production Unit (FPU), Subsea, Umbilical, Riser and Flowline (SURF) and Export Trunkline (ETL). The Contractor must have demonstrated experience to perform inspection and surveillance services globally including China, Japan, Indonesia, Europe, USA and Australia for the above noted packages. Services will be required from 2021 to 2023, as required by Company.
Specifications and Standards:	Quality Requirements for Supply of Products and Services; W1000SQ8474523. International standards: ISO 17000, ISO 9001 All other International Standard relevant to each assignment scope of work (e.g. SURF, FPU, ETL)
Minimum Scope of Work Requirements:	Accredited as a conformity assessment services provider. Capability in international standards for oil and gas sector. Capacity to deploy internationally, including language abilities as required.
Contact:	All initial enquiries should be made through the Industry Capability Network Western Australia Linus O'Brien linus.O'Brien@icnwa.org.au +61 (0) 8 9365 7556
URL	For more information about Woodside please refer to the Company's website : www.woodside.com.au
Closing Date:	2 December 2019