

Western Australia Iron Ore

Western Ridge Project

Expression of Interest

Project Overview:

The proposed project is for the greenfield development of the BHP Iron Ore Western Australia’s Western Ridge site, for a new mine development supported by non-process and process infrastructure.

An overview of the project is available at Western Ridge Project.

In July 2022, BHP engaged a contracting partner to perform the Communications Infrastructure works on the Western Ridge Project under an Engineering, Procurement & Construction contract model.

BHP, in collaboration with BHP’s contracting partner, are seeking expressions of interest from suppliers and subcontractors experienced in supplying goods or services for Communications Infrastructure portions of works on greenfield projects of a similar nature. These expressions of interest are being sought whilst BHP’s contracting partner is undertaking design development for the Communications Infrastructure Works.
