WHS Requirements

Brisbane Move are strongly committed to delivering a project which is targeting zero injuries and incidents. Brisbane Move wish to engage contractors with a similar commitment to personnel and process safety.

Local Content Requirements

Brisbane Move are committed to creating sustainable employment and economic development opportunities for local and indigenous business.

Brisbane Move will positively consider local subcontractors and suppliers, identified as South-East Queensland, subject to best-for-Project and value-for-money objectives.

Training Requirements & Indigenous Participation

Brisbane Move will ensure compliance with the Brisbane City Council's Apprentice, Trainee and Training Requirements for the Brisbane Metro Project through the introduction of traineeships, apprenticeships and up-skilling of the Project team, utilising both direct employees and through its subcontractors. A core requirement for the Brisbane Metro Project is that Apprentices and Trainees are employed for a minimum amount of deemed training labour hours.

A condition of tendering for this package is that the Contractor undertake to participate in accredited training programs and, wherever possible, actively contribute to the minimum deemed training labour hours required for the Project through the engagement of apprentices and trainees and the upskilling of its existing workforce.

The Training Policy supports employment opportunities and skills development in Queensland's building and construction industry. It also focuses on increasing the economic independence of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Queenslanders in the industry.

Brisbane Move Project Objectives

Brisbane Move is committed to the project objectives and expect same commitment from their partners, stakeholders, suppliers and subcontractors.

- Safety: everyone goes home safe, every day;
- Time: to procure and deliver the project works in accordance with specified milestones;
- Integration and performance: delivery of the project works in a way that meets the operational, performance, integration and reliability requirements;
- Whole of project: performance of the project activities in a manner that makes a positive contribution to the successful delivery of the broader Brisbane Metro Project;
- Disruption management: performance of the project activities in a manner that minimises disruption, and ensures no unplanned disruptions to existing public transport services, road networks, businesses and the broader community;
- Value for money: to ensure a cost-effective solution in relation to the design and delivery of all project works that achieves optimum value-for-money outcome;
- Stakeholders: delivery of the project works to support collaborative relationships with stakeholders;
- Community: delivery of the project works to support positive and collaborative relationships with the community.
- Sustainability: Brisbane Move is seeking to achieve an ISCA in Design and Construction rating score of "Gold" for the project works.
