

BAE Systems Australia

Global Access Program

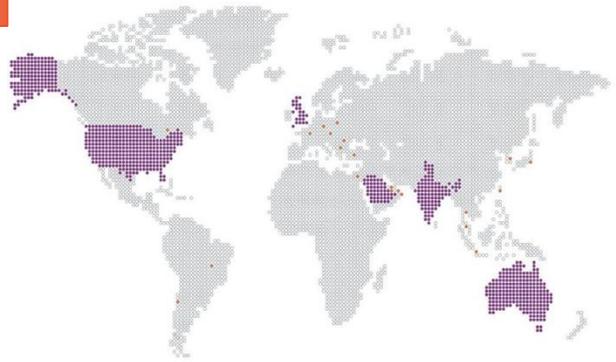

What we do...

The Global Access Program identifies and facilitates supply chain opportunities in our domestic and international programs in order to grow and sustain sovereign capability. BAE Systems supports Australian SME to develop competitiveness, uplift technology readiness level (TRL) and navigate export control requirements with an objective to introduce them into our Global Supply Chain.

BAE Systems – a global organisation

BAE Systems operates in more than 40 countries across multiple domains including:

- Air
- Maritime
- Space
- Land
- Submarines
- Cyber

The GAP team is seeking the following exportable technologies, products and services

Future Combat Air Systems

- Aeronautical engineering support

Space

- Sensors
- Navigation
- Specialist engineering services

Safety & Efficiency

- Autonomous solutions
- Automation

Combat Vehicle Technology

- Ruggedised components
- Lethality/survivability products and technology

Quantum

- Sensing
- PNT

Net Zero Technologies

- Low emission manufacturing techniques
- Efficiency & optimisation

Underwater Battlespace Solutions

- Autonomous systems
- Command/control systems
- Sensors

Electronics

- Semi additive PCB manufacturing

Education

- Artificial intelligence/virtual reality learning
- Training simulation/support

Additive/Advanced Manufacturing

- Robotics
- Industry 4.0 technologies
- Weight reduction
 - Materials
 - Manufacturing processes
 - Technology

Support available...

Advisory services

The GAP team comprises experienced business development specialists. Our team can help you navigate export controls and advise regarding defence strategy. GAP can also offer subject matter expert assistance in quality, security, and engineering support.

Industry training 2023

All information regarding GAP Industry Training is available on our BAE Systems Australia ICN Supplier Portal. In 2023 we will be offering:

- Estimating and Pricing Fundamentals
- Estimating and Pricing Masterclass
- Cybersecurity Maturity Model Awareness (CMMC) Workshops
- Defence Federal Acquisition Regulation (DFAR) Training and Awareness

GAP Website QR Code

ICN Gateway QR Code

In-country export opportunity assistance

GAP has representation in both the UK and USA ready to support any Australian Defence SME execute an export opportunity. Our team members can facilitate meetings, organise site visits and provide in country business development support for your business.

Our team...

2023 Global Access Program

Australia

Jeremy Satchell	Head of Global Access Program
Matt Majewski	Business Development Lead – Australian Industry
Megan Allan	Program Support Manager
Ben Francis	Business Development Support Officer

International

Mike Langner	Business Development Manager – UK/Europe
David Cianfrini	Business Development Manager - USA